RANN OF KUTCH

A DIFFERENT KIND
OF LUXURY

A BOUTIQUE RANN UTSAV STAY

A place to pause.
A landscape to remember.

Salt-white horizons. The warmth of Kutch.

A different kind of luxury, at Namak.

કચ્છ જી ધરા મથે આંજો સ્વાગત આહે

You are welcome on the soil of Kutch.

FIRST, THE LANDSCAPE

Some places stay with you. The Rann is one of them.

At the White Rann, the horizon becomes the main event. Namak begins with that sense of space, then brings the experience back to a more personal scale.

01 / THE WHITE RANN

A landscape of salt.

The Great Rann of Kutch is a vast salt landscape in Gujarat. Around Dhordo, the White Rann is closely associated with Rann Utsav, where the landscape meets the region's music, dance and craft traditions.

02 / THE PEOPLE OF KUTCH

Colour beyond the white.

Kutch's character lives as much in its communities as in its scenery. Embroidery, textiles and other handicrafts offer another way to encounter the region: through the skill, patience and imagination of its makers.

AND THEN, NAMAK

Namak takes its name from salt. Our boutique collection brings a warm, intimate place to stay to a journey shaped by this remarkable landscape.

BEYOND THE WHITE HORIZON

A warm welcome. A world of colour.

The landscape draws you here. The traditions, craft and people of Kutch give the journey its colour.

THE PATIENCE OF HANDWORK

Made by hand. Carried through generations.

Look closely at the region's embroidery, mirror-work and woven textiles. These are living traditions, each offering a way to experience Kutch through its makers.

NAMAK
A DIFFERENT KIND
OF LUXURY

A boutique stay is made of small moments: a welcoming space, a comfortable seat, a meal to return to. At Namak, these moments frame your time in Kutch.

THE COMPLETE PICTURE

A generous presence. Under white canvas.

The full silhouette, from the raised roof to the broad sheltered front, with space to appreciate its proportions.

THE FRONT ELEVATION / FULL TENT VIEW

THE THREE-QUARTER VIEW

A DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVE

See the whole stay.

Your first glimpse of Namak is a broad white silhouette. The raised roof, scalloped eaves and screened front give each tent its familiar canvas character.

Brown carpeted grounds and a red entrance walkway complete the arrival.

THE ROOM EDIT

Under canvas. Entirely at ease.

Step inside and the landscape gives way to texture: patterned canvas, dark timber and warm textiles. A simple, restful place to return to.

A quieter palette

White bedding and warm ochre accents sit against star-patterned canvas. A simple timber bed keeps the sleeping space calm and uncluttered.

Grounded in texture

Fitted carpet, a layered rug and timber furniture bring warmth underfoot. The sofa opposite the bed creates a second place to settle in.

LOOK A LITTLE CLOSER

Everyday comforts. Thoughtfully placed.

An open layout, a place to settle in and warm natural textures give each day a gentler rhythm.

CANVAS & WARM TEXTILES

THE DRESSING CONSOLE

01 / TEXTURE

Soft layers

A restrained mix of canvas, bedding and warm textiles.

02 / COMFORT

A place to pause

Timber sofa seating faces the bed from the opposite end of the tent.

03 / SPACE

Room to prepare

A tall timber mirror and dressing console, with an open space to get ready.

A LANDSCAPE THAT SETS THE PACE

Stay for the stillness. Remember the warmth.

A day at Namak can be as unhurried as you choose. Begin with breakfast, leave time for the destination, then return for hi-tea, dinner and a cultural programme.

01 Slow mornings
